

Voting in favor of weakening the current regulations that prohibit the consolidation of print and electronic news media is not in the interests of the citizens of the United States. The differing aspects of issues are not adequately represented when the means of dispersal of information is in the hands of too few interests. I strongly oppose taking a vote that leads to more media consolidation. On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules.